If Roses Grow in Heaven

By Dolores M. Garcia

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.

I've known Frank and Shirley for over fifty years. They were a lot of help when I was going through a divorce. I wouldn't have made it if it wasn't for them. They were always a step away if I needed any help. We also had a lot of good memories. One time they drove their motorcycle when we were camping on the coast. We had a lot of good laughs telling jokes. I am going to miss them a lot.

I knew Shirley was a quality person from the time we had adjacent lockers at Grant, all those years ago! Generous and genuine, a loyal wife, devoted mom, thoughtful cousin, neighbor and friend, she uplifted our family in many ways and made this world a kinder, more gracious place. We've all been fortunate to have her with us. Linda (Weckman) Merker
