She had the most contagious smile and laugh. I always looked forward to seeing her and just getting that warm, comforting smile. She was so loving, caring, and honest. I loved to help her bake, sew, or just sit outside and talk. She always brightened a room. It was tough when she got sick because we lost such a beautiful person, but even though she wasn't the same we still remembered her smile, her laugh, her hugs, and so much more. I will never forget how much she loved me and her family. Those are the memories I'll carry with me, forever. Missing you, always.
