Ellis, Norma Louise

Norma Louise Ellis of Rancho Cordova passed away at the age of 70 on Tuesday, May 26, 2015, at Mercy Folsom Hospital after an unexpected illness. Norma was born on December 19, 1944 in San Francisco to John and Pearl Shook. As a young child, her family moved from San Francisco to North Sacramento where she attended Grant High School. She was a dedicated employee at Pacific Bell for over 25 years and then worked at Aerojet for over 15 years. In her retirement years, she could be found with friends playing Bingo at Madison Mall, pulling slot machines in Tahoe and local casinos, and worship-ing at The Gathering Place Church in Folsom. She was very proud of her 2 grandsons and cherished time spent with them. Norma is survived by her sons Brian Keith Ellis (Pamela) and David Michael Ellis (Whitney), grandsons Justin Ellis and Carter Ellis. She is preceded in death by her husband, her parents and her brother Sydney Shook. Visitation is to be held Tuesday, June 2, 2015 from 4-8 pm, with Funeral Services on Wednesday, June 3, 2015 at 10:00 am. Services will be held at Sunset Lawn Chapel of the Chimes at 4701 Marysville Blvd., Sacramento, CA 95838. Norma will be greatly missed by many!

I don't have a one particular memory of Norma but I do have a fondness for and cared a great deal for Norma. We were exercise buddies at Curves for a long time. We had good conversations and shared family stores. I was shocked to hear of her passing. Curves closed down so I haven't seen her since then. My condolences go to her family. Yvonne Lucsky

I will miss Norma terribly. Her and I just in the last four years or so have become good friends. I will miss her smile, and her positive attitude, her intelligence that was beyond compare. She always made me feel good when I talked to her. She is one God's Angels. Bless you Norma.
