She loved her grand kids and catered to all equally. For breakfast after sending grandpa to work, she would make each grand kid what they wanted for breakfast. From bacon & eggs, to the best chocolate gravy with butter & bread, ice cold milk or O/j. Clean everything up get us all ready, dig a hole pull some worms out of the ground, walk down the levee to the fishing hole, catch some catfish & be back for lunch. Always preparing something for us all.

Grandma was a good hearted person ! She loved to cook and be with family members . She loved it when all the grand kids and family had get togethers... She loved her easy chair and a good episode of two and a half men. She always said she was waiting for her boys to come on... She will missed...
