Edna A. Malone posted:

My mother Anna Chatman was a loving and caring person. She taught me family values how to take care for myself and how to care for my children who are now grown men and with a family of their own. She will truly be missed, but she is with my father Eddie Chatman, her 3 sisters and father and mother. The Love I have for you will never die as long as I am alive. I will see you all one day soon
