Dale, I remember when u and Dean were about 13 yrs. old, I was visiting ur mom. U and Dean went downtown and about an hour later came running back home. Both of u were carrying wooden Rayban cases that held about 30 pairs of sunglasses in each one...I can still hear u saying..."Look what we got while we was downtown....Here Barbra...pick one..anyone u want...u can have 2 if u want!" I found out later how u guys got them and all I could do was laugh!!! I miss u so much...U and Dean have been a part of my family for over 30 yrs and I'm gonna miss u dearly but I promise...I WILL NEVER FORGET U!! Rest in Peace my friend!!!! I LOVE UR LIFE!!!!

15 years ago i met my best friend, husband, n the father of our beautiful children. We had our good times n our share of bad times nut one thing was for sure, we always has each others back when it came down to it. N we never stopped loving one another. I will never forget the day he was taken from us with such a senseless act of violence, a father ripped away from his children for no reason but his memory lives on thru his children. I will always love u n moss u until we r reunited in heaven where we will share eternity together. No one will ever fill ur shoes Dale. Shine like the star u r.

My heart goes out to all of Dales children, to his family, and to all of us, that loved him . Dale was a kind hearted, level headed man, that preferred talking out issues, oppose to violence. Anybody that knew Dale, knew they had a friend. Dale was part of my family for 11 or so years. and was always the courteous friendly Dale. To all of you that he gave advise, please remember the words.To all of you that got that last hug, cherish it. To all of you that laughed at something funny Dale said, remember the laughter. Dale will be forever missed by his, mine, and all families, in which whose hearts Dale has touched. We have lost a peacemaker. The Dale I know would want us all to come together in peace, so that we all in our own right, have the stance to say goodbye to a dear friend, and loved one. Everyone please come together for Dale. This is indeed what HE would have wanted. And we pray for the future happiness, and well being of his children, as they are his legacy
