Margaret Yvonne Wintermute

APR 16, 1928 - JAN 17, 2014

Yvonne was the third daughter of Lynn and Allie LeJeane of Iota, Louisiana. She was preceded in death by her parents, her loving husband of 53 years, George and her daughter Kathy. She is survived by her son Greg (Tara), five grandchildren Rachelle, Brooke, Nicholas, Robert and Matthew, six great grandchildren Jordan, Isaiah, Celeste, Brandon, Jonathan and Isaac. Yvonne is also survived numerous family members in Louisiana.

She was a “people person”. She enjoyed making lasting friends. She enjoyed her family and had so much fun with the grandchildren. She was a busy military wife, a stay at home mother very busy volunteering all the time. Yvonne was employed before having children for the State of California for 10 years and for McClellan AFB for 17 years. Before her marriage she worked for the State of Louisiana Welfare and Veterans Affairs.

She was a member of the Catholic Daughters since 1998, holding an Officer of the Court for seven years. She loves her Sisters in Christ and wonderful neighbors. She will be missed.

Vonne – one of the loveliest, and certainly most effervescent women I ever met. I am so happy you were a best friend of my mother, Stella, because we were able to meet and socialize on numerous occasions. I am grateful you were in our presence several times in the last few months (the last at Ava's holiday pagent).Vonne – you will be missed and our love will be with you always.Shirley St. Mary
