Jeanie Pryde Lardie

MAR 7, 1939 - DEC 3, 2020

Jeanie Pryde Lardie, 81, of Sacramento, died December 3rd, 2020 at her home.

Jeanie was born on March 7th, 1939 in Marysville, CA, to her parents Vernon and Vera Loudon (Fulton).

She attended El Camino High School in Sacramento, CA, graduating in 1957.

Jeanie's love of family was her greatest joy in life.

Having family and friends passing through her home has always given her the greatest happiness. Her unique ability to make people feel warm and welcome was one of her most caring characteristics.

Many of her sons' friends thought of her as a second mom.

She was an incredibly strong person with an amazing work ethic, worked for Pacific Bell for 25 years, most of those as a manager. She inspired the best in people.

She is survived by her 6 sons: Michael, Bryan, Nicholas, Mathew, Mark, Timothy and her brother John Graham and sister Arlene Cartwright.

A celebration of her life will be held in the Spring.

I used to spend the night at the Lardie home ,it was always a loving and nurturing environment. Lowell and Jeanie were the most supportive parents I have ever seen . Michael and were very close childhood friends and the love continues today . Only the love we share is what lives on in this world. Peace to all the Lardie family.
