Joyce Ann Gould
February 21, 1954 – January 5, 2021

Joyce left this life with her best friend and husband Roy Gould by her bedside on Tuesday, January 5, 2021 at 11:25 a.m.

Joyce was born on February 21, 1954 to Ralph and Geneva Back in Sacramento, California. She was the oldest of three children, sister Debbie Back and brother Michael Back. She was the first grandchild to Raymond and Amie Friend. Joyce attended Grant High School and Norte Del Rio High School, graduating in 1972. Joyce had a love for baseball-Oakland A's and basketball-Kings and Boston Celtics. She also had a love for old cars, trucks, and antiques. Her hobbies were to grow flowers and tomatoes and to bake and cook for family and friends. Of course, she could not do any of this without her best friend and #1 fan, her husband Roy, by her side.

I met Joyce through my brother Derrick, from that day we bonded. She treated my mom and I like family and treated me like a little sister. Back in my party days after clubbing all night long with my friend she opened her home to us. One morning she got up to make breakfast for my friend and I. While we were eating my friend whispered and said, "she cooks like a black person," "this food is soooo good! We all laughed! I remember she use to say I am married to my best friend (Roy). Joyce was very blessed to find love and her best friend at the same time. She never forgot to send a card for my birthday and at Christmas. I have so many memories of Joyce I can go on and on! I will miss hearing your voice. "Rest in Peace my friend." Love you!Toni Thomas

Joyce Ann, I will miss you tremendously.....our Tuesday phone calls, your funny stories and all of the love that you sent to all of us in your cards and homemade treats. You are the only person who never forgot a birthday or anniversary. I will miss you on Christmas Eve when our family gathers. I know you are resting in peace now, however, you will forever remain in my heart. I love you ❤️
