William Victor Yorba

NOV 26, 1947 - AUG 29, 2021

William Victor Yorba was born in Monterey Park, California on November 26th, 1947 to parents Virginia and George Yorba. He passed away in Sacramento, California on Sunday, August 29th, 2021.

William was truly a gift from God to his family. His quick actions at a very young age saved his brother, George, from an early demise at the age of 3. William had a deep sense of responsibility to his family, being a caregiver to his mother in her final years. William was precocious in his musical ability, learning how to play the accordion and how to read music by the age of 10.

William was used by God throughout his life to care for his family and friends. He never married but maintained a close relationship with his brother and sister-in-law and his beloved niece and nephew. He will be missed by all who knew him. Services are being planned for a later date.
