Monte Kevin McGrath December 29, 1962 - January 12, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Monte Kevin McGrath, a beloved husband, talented handyman, and dedicated Navy veteran, on January 12, 2025. Born on December 29, 1962, Monte touched the lives of all who knew him with his infectious humor, unwavering kindness, and remarkable ability to fix anything.

Monte shared a joyful life with his wife, Christine, with whom he always found fun and adventure. Their love and laughter were a testament to a life well-lived and deeply cherished.

A man of many talents, Monte had an extraordinary knack for repairs, whether it was a broken appliance or a heart in need of comfort. His good sense of humor was a beacon of light, bringing smiles to friends and strangers alike.

Monte proudly served his country as a veteran of the Navy, exemplifying bravery and dedication. He carried these values into his civilian life, where he continued to serve and uplift his community.

One of Monte's greatest joys was spending time at Fort Bragg, California, where he found peace and contentment amidst the natural beauty of the coastline.

Monte leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and service. His memory will be cherished by his wife Christine, family, friends, and all who had the honor of knowing him.

Rest in peace, Monte. Your spirit, humor, and kindness will forever remain in our hearts.

Oh Monte, I've been trying to find you for years now. You weren't on Facebook, but I did find 1 of your nephews. Talked to him, he said no one had seen you. You liked to live like a hermit. I placed an ad on Craigslist in Oroville or in a town close by. Need help trying to find a long lost friend. No one contacted me. The best memories of my life I had with you. When you kidnapped me and took me to Vegas in the middle of the night. That was fun. Then when I took you home to Oroville and you showed me around the town, the dam, the salmon hatchery, camping and gold panning off the Feather River. I still have that black crystal gem. I met your parents and their little antique shop next to their house. I came back to visit you and your mom watched me walk in between your truck and the car and when I brushed up against your truck, I must have had the strangest look on my face when I looked at her and said, "this is house paint, on his truck." Your mom couldn't stop laughing after she said yes. After I got divorced, I called you and you were ready to get on the next flight to WA state. I've regretted all these years saying no to you. I guess I figured since you didn't have a stable job, how were you going to take care of me and a brand new baby girl. (Katie graduates from Law School & gets married May 2026). I never let you try. I'm sorry. That was 2000. I lost track of you then, until I found you got a DUI in a town near Sacramento. I figured you were unhappy with your life and I was hoping to find you, but sadly I came up empty, until I typed your first, middle and last name in my phone and found you had died a few days after my birthday last year and my heart sank. I forget we all grow old. That's why we all need to live each day to its fullest because we don't know if we'll see tomorrow. Sleep soundly. I miss you with an empty heart Monte. Love Patty
