With heavy hearts, we announce the sudden passing of Richard Emerson Gangwer on January 28, 2025. Richard was born on August 25, 1969, and his life was a testament to love, generosity, and strength.

Richard cherished his family above all else. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a proud grandfather. He found immense joy in the company of his beloved wife, sons, and grandchildren, and his unwavering love for them was evident in every action and word.

Known for his kind and generous spirit, Richard touched the lives of many. He had a heart of gold and a strength that inspired those around him. Whether it was lending a helping hand or offering words of encouragement, Richard was always there for those in need.

Cousin, I hope you rest easy with Aunt Linda, Uncle Rick, and Joey. You will be missed by many down here. Your brother, James, his girls, all your children, cousins, wife, friends, the list goes on. You were loved by many. You have lots of us that are sending love and prayers up there. Give the rest of our family lots of love. Make sure my Dad gets an extra one. :)

In loving memory Our hearts are broken with the loss of our beloved cousin, Ricky. You were taken from us far too soon. Growing up together, Aunt Linda & Uncle Rick were like second parents to me, and I always thought of you, Joey, and Jamie as my brothers. We shared and bond that was full of laughter and love. There were so many treasured memories...cruising downtown, celebrating parties, rocking out at concerts, camping under the stars and four-wheeling just to name a few. We always looked out for each other, and you were always there for me when to lend a hand or an ear when I needed you most. Your kindness extended to anyone who needed you. While there is emptiness in all our hearts that you are not with us, knowing that you are reunited with your mom, dad and brother Joey....your bestie cousin Rob and the numerous aunts, uncles and cousins who preceded you, brings me comfort. I know you are smiling down on us all, watching over us in spirit. Your laughter, your smile, and the beautiful heart that you share will forever be cherished. We will always love and miss you dear cousin. Until we meet again. Our deepest sympathies to the family, I will always be there for your sons. ❤️
