Jack Norwood Marshall

JAN 16, 1961 - APR 13, 2026

Jack Norwood Marshall January 16, 1961 – April 13, 2026

Jack Norwood Marshall, born January 16, 1961, in California, passed away on April 13, 2026. He leaves behind his devoted wife of 40 years, Susan Marshall, and their children David, Daniel (Trish), and Angela Marshall. He was a proud grandfather to Taylor and Raymond Marshall, who brought him endless joy. Cherished brother of Suzanne Lucas and Kathleen Marshall. Jack was preceded in death by his parents, Jack and Dolores Marshall.

Jack grew up in North Highlands, where he developed a lifelong love for the outdoors. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, happiest with a dog by his side, a good story on his lips, and the sun setting over the horizon. His gift for storytelling—equal parts humor, heart, and adventure—was one of the many ways he connected with the people around him.

For over 30 years, Jack worked as a mill operator for ASC BlueScope in West Sacramento. He was known for his strong work ethic, steady presence, and the camaraderie he built with his coworkers over decades of shared effort and early mornings.

Jack had a deep appreciation for life's simple pleasures: rock music concerts, the glow of a perfect sunset, and the photo albums he curated with pride. His collection of photographs—taken and gathered from the time he was young—captured the people, places, and moments that shaped his life. They remain a testament to the way he saw the world: with curiosity, gratitude, and a storyteller's eye.

Jack will be remembered for his warmth, his humor, and the love he carried for his family. His stories, his laughter, and his presence will be deeply missed and forever cherished.

Uncle Jack was my Dad's best friend. Now they are together again. Here is a picture of all my favorite guys! (they painted this horse trough for my wedding back in 2013.)

Jack was a wild kid and could find trouble with friend Kevin Long. I babysit him, he was 8 i was 12. We were next door neighbors. Jack and Kevin would door ditch me all the time. I chased them home and they'd come right back and do it again. One time I clotheslined myself on a tree in his yard. His Mom Dolores was pretty mad at them both. I knew they felt bad. Thanks for the memories Jack ❤️🙏❤️

I am deeply saddened by the news of Jack's passing. Susie and I go way back to when we were in kindergarten together. I met Jack my freshman year in high school. At that time Jack and Susie didn't know each other, but I had the pleasure of having their friendship from 2 different parts of my life. The things I remember about Jack is his kind demeanor and the fact that we both failed science our freshman year. But on graduation day, I remember his walking across the stage wearing flip flops. I don't remember what dress I wore under my gown, but I remember Jack flip flopping across the stage as Mr. Rupp handed him his diploma. Just 2 days later Susie and Jack met at the graduation party that Susie and I planned in my parent's barn. A few years later I stood as maid of honor at their wedding. A day that reflected an Italian-Country blend that was Jack & Susie. And, through their union, Jack became an equal part of my memories that Susie & I shared. Because it wasn't just Jack or just Susie. It was Jack and Susie. My heart aches for Sue and her kids, grandkids, Jack's sisters, etc. I know you will carry with you the calm, kind, down to earth qualities that Jack left with you. He left behind a wonderful legacy. May God Bless and hold you close during this time.
