“ Oh the memories. Nate man we all miss you so much. You truly did bring joy and a light to all around you. We had lots of adventures together when Nate was younger. I would have any where from 3 - 5 kids and Nathan always offered to help with breakfast, especially eggs. He would say, Amber do you want me to make the eggs. I guess Jamey traumatized him by making him eat pancakes or waffles. Nate told this story to our aunt PK. Taking you and Stephen to Young Marines, paint balling to making popsicle boats and taking them to Arden Pond to race. I will cherish these memories and many more. Man Nate would always be down to try whatever game I came up with. He was so attentive, handsome and respectful. I love you so much. We all love you. You are so missed but will never be forgotten Nate. We will help look out for Andi and your boys.

Tell we see each other again, LOVE YOU

“ My man. My best friend. My brother. We have been friends since we were 5 years old. Almost 30 years. We've been through so many ups and downs together. We've cried on eachothers shoulders and always have been there for eachother. His family has always accepted me as part of their family. His dad was as close as a father as I was able to get. I got fed, clothed, and loved by them. All I had to do was help with family chores. I went on trips and had experiences that I never would have had otherwise. He was always there for love, support, and advice. I will never forget him. I was his friend until the very end and I loved him. If anybody deserves to get into heaven it's him. I'm the Godfather of his oldest son and will be there to support his family always. Such a shining star snuffed out too early. I basically lived at his house and always felt accepted by his entire family. I'll never forget that or you. I love you dawg. The world is a darker place without you. You are loved and missed my friend. Rest in peace and watch over us from heaven. I love you dawg.
